Your Health Kundali

Astrology has been related to health since ancient times. It has been mentioned in the ancient epics that the astrologers performed the duties of a doctor. Many branches of astrology containing a description of Ayurveda are found in ancient epics. These epics also contain a detailed description of the Tridoshas. These Tridoshas are Vata, Pitta and Kapha. These Tridoshas are governed by some or the other planet. For instance, the Sun and Mars govern the Pitta or bile nature and Mercury contains all the three Doshas i.e Vata(Wind), Pitta (Bile) and Kapha(Phelgam). Moon contains more Kapha than other planets and it also contains a little quantity of Vata. Jupiter governs the Kapha nature while Venus governs both Vata and Kapha. Saturn contains the Vata dosha.

An individual will suffer from a disease related to the Dosha of the planet which is weak in the Kundali of native or the disease related to a planet which is in malefic influence of the other planets. For instance, the person will suffer from Kapha and ailments related to Kapha if Moon is weak in a person's Kundali.

In ancient times, the new medicines were started according to the advice of an astrologer. A good practitioner of astrology used to tell the time and way to take medicines to a patient. There are many medicines in Ayurveda now-a-days which have a specific time and a specific way of intake. The practitioner of Ayurveda use this in their treatment.
